2012 All America Winner

Ornamental Pepper Black Olive (1967)

Be the first to grow this item - just announced Dec 2011 - All summer long this beauty keeps its upright habit with nicely draping leaves and dark purple-black fruit which appears in small clusters along the stems. As summer progresses, the fruits mature to red giving a beautiful contrast against the dark purple foliage and bright purple flowers. Fruits are edible. Great for borders, a color splash for containers or as a cut flower for mixed bouquets.

New for 2012!

Basil Aristotle (7724) - A stylish, compact variety with tightly packed, tiny leaves that create pretty pale green mounds. At only 6 to 10 inches, it is perfect for patio gardens, containers and window boxes.

Tomato Tumbling Tiger (8531) - Tumbling Tiger is a unique compact trailing variety with red and green striped fruit. The plant habit is very strong & neat making it very useful for planting in mixed baskets and containers. The unusual striped fruits are well protected by the foliage, which is helpful in preventing scorch in very high light levels. With a garden height of 6 inches and a maturity of 55 days - it is bound to be a winner.

did you know ?

At Germania, we had a "Best Tasting Tomato" contest; the Heirloom - Black Krim won for the standard size and Sun Sugar & Sweet 100 won for the small-fruited variety. PLACE YOUR ORDERS EARLY AS SUPPLY IS LIMITED !!!

a healthy hint

Honey is the only food on the planet that will not spoil or rot. However, when left in a cool dark place, it can 'crystallize'. When this happens, loosen the lid, boil some water and sit the honey container in the turned off hot water, it will be as good as new. Never boil honey or put it in the microwave.
